

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE DOCTORAL WORKSHOP

OVERVIEW

The EuSEC 2010 Doctoral Workshop is an interactive forum, where PhD students have the opportunity to share their research findings and receive useful feedback and advice as they prepare their dissertations. To achieve this goal, the doctoral workshop targets PhD students who are approximately half-way through their doctoral studies.

DOCTORAL WORKSHOP FORMAT

The EuSEC 2010 Doctoral Workshop is a half-day event consisting of the following elements:

- Workshop Lunch. During the workshop lunch, accepted students will have the opportunity to interact with senior researchers and practitioners to get inspiration regarding "life after the PhD defense".
- Synopsis Presentations. A number of students will have the opportunity to give presentations of their work. Each presentation will be followed by feedback/discussion. The feedback will be provided by both other students and by a panel consisting of senior researchers and practitioners.
- Birds of a Feather Session. After the presentations, the participants will be divided into groups to discuss issues related to doctoral research in systems engineering. At the end of the session, each group will share their insights with the other groups.

SUBMISSIONS

Each potential participant should prepare and submit a short 2-4 pages PhD synopsis. The PhD synopsis should include:

- A motivation for the main research challenge being addressed
- A description of the new approach being taken to solve the challenge
- A description of the research methods used
- Possible preliminary results

Selected students will also be requested to prepare a presentation of their work.

All submissions will be reviewed and receive comments.
